CITIZENSHIP

Service to others makes a difference at home and in the community

As families and community members we have the ability to help children build a strong foundation for future success!

Assets are about knowing you and what you are: a valuable, worthwhile person with many talents.

Here are some easy ways to make that difference to youth in your life.

Youth—

- Treat everyone equally and with respect.
- Perform a random act of kindness a day.
- Stay involved with your community by reading the newspaper.
- Respect community property.

Adults—

- Good citizenship begins at home.
- Visit historical museums, monuments, and/or national parks.
- Encourage them to participate in community service projects, such as recycling, picking up litter & volunteering.
